Allocutio given by Fr Andre Nahas, Spiritual Director

The New Nature of man, it is the nature of the risen Christ from among the dead, “it” is sanctified spiritually to be fit for mutualize to the new life with Father and his son Jesus Christ and if it the “Holy Gospel and prayer life” is actively lived and followed it will be fit to be opened and conscious to the mysteries of the logos (the word) and to be sensible to the truth and knowledge of the sacraments of God and His plans.

This nature fit in grace is to be a true sanctuary of the Holy Spirit dwelling in her, guiding her, relaxed in her, educating her and revealing to her the true image of Christ and his promises.

This nature is fit now to have vision and, revelations without preparing it or programming it. These are the given gifts without measure and that which St. Paul saw in the new nature to be fit to become members in Christ the body and “she” (the new nature) actually is the ‘decorator’ of the Holy Church in the persons sanctified and Holy for every generation.
